COUNTY NEWS NOTES.

To insure insertion ALL correspondence must be in this office by Monday night of each week, and that nearly on Monday morning.

Our correspondents are derelict in duty and we want to say that henceforth they will not receive papers except for the week they have news letters. We are dependent upon them for the news and when they fail to send in their favors they put us to great inconvenience.

LANE LILIES.

Several new cases of flux among us. Ye scribe is not having the best of health at this writing.

Misses Zerilda and Martha Sewell visited relatives and friends on White Oak Sunday.

Trustees of school district No. 44, on Holly, met in school house on Monday, July 1, at 1 o'clock p. m., and hired Taylor Sewell as their teacher.

Steve Samples and Curtis Rose, of Lacy creek, were at the quarterly meeting at Elkin's chapel Sunday. Also that jovial and admired Hannibal Hurst, of Campton. Han has a girl near the place of divine worship, near Elkin's chapel, and if he makes his visits to see his "dearest" pretty often, we think Han's sanctimonious views will strengthen.

Mrs. Merideth Brewer, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Timothy Terrell, after an illness of about three weeks, quietly and serenely departed this life. Mrs. Brewer was a member and worker of the Christian church, having given her life to Christ many years ago. She leaves five children, many relatives and friends to mourn her loss.

Ova Swango and wife, of your town, passed through this place on Saturday en route to Valeria.

Quite a crowd from this place attended the Sunday-school picnic at Pine Grove, Sunday. Among those we noticed from this place were, N. B. Lyons, wife and son Corbett, Mrs. Gillie Pieratt, Misses Nannie Day, Frona Neff, Mrs. Sarah Wills, John Childers and wife, Willie Childers, Ray Pieratt and several others.

Ye scribe had the pleasure of attending a birthday social on the 27th at the home of Mr. and Mrs. James Easton, given in honor of their daughter, Miss Mollie, it being her 14th birthday. There was quite a number of her young friends present. We are compelled to omit the names of those that were in attendance on account of space. Permit us to say all enjoyed themselves and left wishing Miss Mollie many more birthdays.

OUR LETTER FROM THE ORIENT.

To the Hazel Green HERALD.
SAN ISIDRO, N. E. LUZON, P. I.
May 22, 1901.

DEAR SIR:—The bright winter days with its icy breath and mantle of snow, the death of many a flower and tender shrub has slipped past with marvelous rapidity in the dear old county of Wolfe, and gave place to the brighter sun shine of spring, and now today, my birth day, with its glorious wealth of green, and its myriad buds of flowers and sweetly perfumed air, is holding high carnival in Kentucky, the fair and favored land.

I arrived in Manila March 4, 1899, and have been on the Island of Luzon ever since, which is the largest and most northern, most important and most thickly populated of the Philippines. I only have seven months from tomorrow to complete my three years of enlistment. Don't think I will re-enlist, but may not return to America soon, if discharged on the Island, but would be pleased to meet my friends of Kentucky, and no doubt but what this is my last birth day in the Philippines, as the third one should be enough.

This is the day which the light spreads itself over the fields like a mantle of gold, when the ancient trees, with their clinging parasites lazily move their great crowns in the breath of the early breeze; when the shrubs greet the day with the delicious odors of their flowers, on whose tendrils the dew drops left a pearl which the sun turns into a beautiful gift from a serene night of love; when the birds rise in concerted choir, the hymn of praise; in short, all nature salutes the father of life, the luminous representation of the creator of the world.

Gen. Lacuna surrendered here May 19th, with 18 officers and 238 men, with 238 serviceable rifles. With this surrender the last chapter of warfare in northern Luzon is closed, as Lacuna is the last general in the field about here. The surrender was a very impressive sight, with the torn and tattered clothed Philippine soldiers as they filed into town in column of twos, and upon entering the town came to a carry arms, and all seemed to have a smile on their face to think that they would be permitted to, at last, lay down their arms and return to their peaceful homes. Again had you witnessed this surrender, you must have seen what happiness it brought to some homes as the wives and children circled about their fathers and brothers for the first time in two years. The duty of a soldier is now rather easy compared with the previous service on the Island.

Yours respectfully,
GEO. L. ATHEY,
Corp. Co. D, 22nd, U. S. Infantry.

Cured at 82 Years

ANDERSON, IND.
I have had Rheumatism and Kidney Trouble for about a year. Hearing of the cures made by your Vitae-Ore, I began taking it, and it has done me more good than all of the other medicines I have ever taken. I have been using it now for about four weeks and am almost entirely cured of my Kidney Trouble and it has also helped my Rheumatism. I was so bad at times that I could not get down to tie my shoes, but I can now walk four or five miles and not feel the effects of it. I was 82 years old on September 11.

Henry Pieratt's hostler hitched a horse to a buggy for a drummer on Monday morning and left the horse standing, when he took fright and ran, and everybody who saw him go said the buggy would be smashed into smithereens. But one time they were mistaken. He ran toward the river, crossed just below the bridge, took a course to the right of the mill and again ran into the river where he stopped. The horse was badly frightened and two bows of the buggy top bent was the only damage, but what might have happened is a plenty.

A Poor Millionaire

Lately starved in London because he could not digest his food. Early use of Dr. King's New Life Pills would have saved him. They strengthen the stomach, aid digestion, promote assimilation, improve appetite. Price 25c. Money back if not satisfied. Sold by J. Taylor Day, Hazel Green, and S. S. Combs & Sons, Campton, drug stores.

A New Jersey man who, by the way, is a shining light of the society for prevention of cruelty to animals, was arrested recently for beating his wife. He pleaded justification, alleging she had given him a cold dinner, and seemed utterly outraged when he was sent to jail for the offense. This was in New Jersey, you know.

This issue closes the sixteenth year of THE HERALD, and in opening the next volume, which will be much larger, we hope to receive better patronage the coming year from the citizens, especially the merchants, than heretofore.

J. T. Day's stock of mens' and boys' clothing is complete in every department. You will find all the latest styles there, and can buy cheaper than at any other house in Eastern Kentucky.

DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve should be promptly applied to cuts, burns and scalds. It soothes and quickly heals the injured part. There are worthless counterfeits, be sure to get DeWitt's. H. F. PIERATT.

Our painter, Sam Wilson, came from Daysboro last Saturday after painting the interior of Coon Alexander's residence. Those wishing his services, should see him at once.

During the next 90 days there will be a revolution in the price of goods at the store of J. T. Day that has never before been witnessed in Eastern Kentucky.

A child of Millard Brewer and wife, of Grassy, died of flux on Monday evening, and was buried on the farm of Wm. Brewer, on Laurel, Tuesday afternoon.

The West India medals are to have a "bar" for participation in the battle of Santiago. Wonder whether Sampson will get one of the latter or not?

Election Tuesday, Nov. 5, 1901.

LOOKING over the two new papers just started in this section, viz: "The News," at Frenchburg, and "The Herald," at Caney, in both of which there are several home advertisements, it occurs to us that the business men of Hazel Green show less enterprise than any people of whom we know, as week after week THE HERALD goes forth to speak good words of the town of Hazel Green and its people, and yet there is not a merchant advertising in its columns. And, to speak in the presence of our merchants of Caney or Frenchburg as being business rivals of Hazel Green would almost insult their dignity, notwithstanding the spirit of enterprise displayed by the merchants of those places and the absolute lack of it in our merchants. For sixteen years we have labored in season and out for the upbuilding of Hazel Green and the material and moral advancement of her people, and much of that time worked 16 hours a day, and thus we are treated in return. THE HERALD, notwithstanding this lack of home support has nevertheless proved a success as a newspaper, but a financial failure. When we look around us and see the support given other papers which have never done the half for their people that we have, and never can, in the very nature of things, it is indeed discouraging. All things considered, THE HERALD has long since gained the reputation of being the best country paper in Kentucky. It is the "oldest, most widely circulated, most popular and most quoted paper in the mountains," and it does look like the pride of the business men would induce them to give it their support. Time and again we have been offered the most flattering inducements to locate at other points. But we have been loyal to our people and always met these appeals to remove elsewhere with the reply, "No, these people are near and dear to us and with them we shall continue to abide," and this, too, in face of the fact that they do not give a support and have never donated a dollar to the paper except for value received. Love, in this case is without reciprocity, and it does look like our love thus demonstrated should have begat the love of these people during 16 years of faithful servitude. If the business men can face these facts without feeling a sense of shame it must be because their consciences are seared. What do our brethren of the press of the state think of the situation? A hint from them will be appreciated.

There were 158 deaths from heat prostration in New York City Tuesday, and 66 in Brooklyn.

A. HOWARD STAMPER, Esq., democratic candidate for state senator from this district, called at THE HERALD office Sunday en route to West Liberty, and in a talk with the editor said he had no doubt of his election in the fall. He says that had certain facts developed at or before the convention there would have been no controversy about the nomination; and, asked what facts he referred to, he said that the county of Owsley had never instructed for Mr. Hampton for state senator, the fact of its one vote being cast for him to the contrary notwithstanding. And, he said, that if it were proven henceforth that Owsley did instruct for Mr. Hampton he would step down and out. His own language, was this: "If it is proven that Mr. Hampton received the instructions of Owsley county, I will quit the race, and I am willing to rest my nomination and election upon that." He says that all the democrats who withdrew from the convention will eventually come in and vote for him and that his election is beyond question. He thinks also, that not only will he be elected but that he will increase the majority. Wolfe he estimates at 408, or the same given Bryan in his first race, and thinks he can safely bank on Morgan for 750. He says he is in to win and win he will.

INADVERTENTLY we last week failed to note the appearance of the Walnut Grove Herald, a 7-col. folio paper, patent outside, just launched at Caney, with Jahiza Haney as editor. The price is $1.00 a year, and if the people of that section of Morgan give it a proper support it is calculated to do much good for that section. It is really a revival of the Caney Courier, which started and stopped two or three times within the last year or so, and is now revived to fill a supposed vacuum caused by the building of the Ohio and Kentucky railroad, it being at the terminus of said road. Mr. Haney is a new man in the newspaper field and his experience for the coming year is calculated to be of much benefit to him in after life. The paper starts under very favorable auspices, showing as it does the advertising of all the business men of the place, and it should prove a success.

RETURNING a compliment we recently paid R. J. White as a prospective publisher of the paper at Frenchburg, Dick seems determined that we should not "out-clever" him, for he says: "The above was penned by an old printer friend, than whom there is no abler disciple of the 'art preservative.' He has lived long enough to put the craps on the coffins that contained the remains of several 'long felt wants' as they were carted to their long home in the field of Eastern Kentucky journalism. The Hazel Green HERALD, at whose helm he has stood for many years, mid the raging storms of variegated hue, and basked in the sunlight of fortune's fickle smile, is still riding the waves of time with 'Spence' constant to duty. May his days of fair weather and good fortune be many, and when 30 comes in may his form be pressed gently by the hands of mother earth filled with a generous bunch of 'forget-me-nots.'"

THE NEWS is the name of the new paper started at Frenchburg, the first edition of which appeared last week, with R. J. White as editor and publisher. It is a 4-column folio, and, while it is quite small it is amply large for the place, and fully worth the price—fifty cents a year. The initial number shows a lot of home advertising, which, if retained at reasonable rates, insures the success of Mr. White's venture, and we hope he may succeed beyond his most sanguine hope.

The Lexington Herald Sunday devoted three columns to the story of Spencer Cooper's life. The Hazel Green editor has a most honorable record as a Federal soldier. He has, like many other veterans, felt some delicacy about applying for a pension, but now finds that he should have applied long ago. A pension for services in the Federal army is a badge of honor and we hope the esteemed editor of THE HERALD will get his badge in large measure at an early day.—Beattyville News.

What to do with one's summer vacation is a perennial question. Most people have neither the money nor the wish to go to an expensive, overcrowded seaside or mountain resort, and yet every man needs a few days devoted to pleasure and a complete rest at least once a year. The Cosmopolitan for July gives a solution of the problem in a well-written, illustrated article, "A Houseboat—The Modern Palace." Undoubtedly a houseboat offers a cheap and comfortable vacation, and the ranks of its devotees are constantly swelling.

Little John Faulkner was shot in the arm by a man named Powers, at Neola on Sunday evening. The ball entered his right arm near the elbow, and ranged around the bone where Dr. Carroll cut it out. From best information obtainable at this time, the shooting was an accident, and consequently there was no arrest.

COUNTY NEWS NOTES.

To insure insertion ALL correspondence must be in this office by Monday night of each week, and that nearby on Monday morning.

Our correspondents are derelict in duty and we want to say that henceforth they will not receive papers except for the week they have news letters. We are dependent upon them for the news and when they fail to send in their favors they put us to great inconvenience.

LANE LILIES.

Several new cases of flux among us. Ye scribe is not having the best of health at this writing.

Misses Zerilda and Martha Sewell visited relatives and friends on White Oak Sunday.

Trustees of school district No. 44, on Holly, met in school house on Monday, July 1, at 1 o'clock p. m., and hired Taylor Sewell as their teacher.

Steve Samples and Curtis Rose, of Lacy creek, were at the quarterly meeting at Elkin's chapel Sunday. Also that jovial and admired Hannibal Hurst, of Campton. Han has a girl near the place of divine worship, near Elkin's chapel, and if he makes his visits to see his "dearest" pretty often, we think Han's sanctimonious views will strengthen.

Mrs. Merideth Brewer, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Timothy Terrell, after an illness of about three weeks, quietly and serenely departed this life. Mrs. Brewer was a member and worker of the Christian church, having given her life to Christ many years ago. She leaves five children, many relatives and friends to mourn her loss.

OUR LETTER FROM THE ORIENT.

To the Hazel Green HERALD.
SAN ISIDRO, N. E. LUZON, P. I.
May 22, 1901.

DEAR SIR:—The bright winter days with its icy breath and mantle of snow, the death of many a flower and tender shrub has slipped past with marvelous rapidity in the dear old county of Wolfe, and gave place to the brighter sun shine of spring, and now today, my birth day, with its glorious wealth of green, and its myriad buds of flowers and sweetly perfumed air, is holding high carnival in Kentucky, the fair and favored land.

I arrived in Manila March 4, 1899, and have been on the Island of Luzon ever since, which is the largest and most northern, most important and most thickly populated of the Philippines. I only have seven months from tomorrow to complete my three years of enlistment. Don't think I will re-enlist, but may not return to America soon, if discharged on the Island, but would be pleased to meet my friends of Kentucky, and no doubt but what this is my last birth day in the Philippines, as the third one should be enough.

This is the day which the light spreads itself over the fields like a mantle of gold, when the ancient trees, with their clinging parasites lazily move their great crowns in the breath of the early breeze; when the shrubs greet the day with the delicious odors of their flowers, on whose tendrils the dew drops left a pearl which the sun turns into a beautiful gift from a serene night of love; when the birds rise in concerted choir, the hymn of praise; in short, all nature salutes the father of life, the luminous representation of the creator of the world.

Gen. Lacuna surrendered here May 19th, with 18 officers and 238 men, with 238 serviceable rifles. With this surrender the last chapter of warfare in northern Luzon is closed, as Lacuna is the last general in the field about here. The surrender was a very impressive sight, with the torn and tattered clothed Philippine soldiers as they filed into town in column of twos, and upon entering the town came to a carry arms, and all seemed to have a smile on their face to think that they would be permitted to, at last, lay down their arms and return to their peaceful homes. Again had you witnessed this surrender, you must have seen what happiness it brought to some homes as the wives and children circled about their fathers and brothers for the first time in two years. The duty of a soldier is now rather easy compared with the previous service on the Island.

Yours respectfully,
GEO. L. ATHEY,
Corp. Co. D, 22nd, U. S. Infantry.

Cured at 82 Years

ANDERSON, IND.
I have had Rheumatism and Kidney Trouble for about a year. Hearing of the cures made by your Vitae-Ore, I began taking it, and it has done me more good than all of the other medicines I have ever taken. I have been using it now for about four weeks and am almost entirely cured of my Kidney Trouble and it has also helped my Rheumatism. I was so bad at times that I could not get down to tie my shoes, but I can now walk four or five miles and not feel the effects of it. I was 82 years old on September 11.

Henry Pieratt's hostler hitched a horse to a buggy for a drummer on Monday morning and left the horse standing, when he took fright and ran, and everybody who saw him go said the buggy would be smashed into smithereens. But one time they were mistaken. He ran toward the river, crossed just below the bridge, took a course to the right of the mill and again ran into the river where he stopped. The horse was badly frightened and two bows of the buggy top bent was the only damage, but what might have happened is a plenty.

A New Jersey man who, by the way, is a shining light of the society for prevention of cruelty to animals, was arrested recently for beating his wife. Election Tuesday, Nov. 5, 1901.

LOOKING over the two new papers just started in this section, viz: "The News," at Frenchburg, and "The Herald," at Caney, in both of which there are several home advertisements, it occurs to us that the business men of Hazel Green show less enterprise than any people of whom we know, as week after week THE HERALD goes forth to speak good words of the town of Hazel Green and its people, and yet there is not a merchant advertising in its columns. And, to speak in the presence of our merchants of Caney or Frenchburg as being business rivals of Hazel Green would almost insult their dignity, notwithstanding the spirit of enterprise displayed by the merchants of those places and the absolute lack of it in our merchants. For sixteen years we have labored in season and out for the upbuilding of Hazel Green and the material and moral advancement of her people, and much of that time worked 16 hours a day, and thus we are treated in return. THE HERALD, notwithstanding this lack of home support has nevertheless proved a success as a newspaper, but a financial failure. When we look around us and see the support given other papers which have never done the half for their people that we have, and never can, in the very nature of things, it is indeed discouraging. All things considered, THE HERALD has long since gained the reputation of being the best country paper in Kentucky. It is the "oldest, most widely circulated, most popular and most quoted paper in the mountains," and it does look like the pride of the business men would induce them to give it their support. Time and again we have been offered the most flattering inducements to locate at other points. But we have been loyal to our people and always met these appeals to remove elsewhere with the reply, "No, these people are near and dear to us and with them we shall continue to abide," and this, too, in face of the fact that they do not give a support and have never donated a dollar to the paper except for value received. Love, in this case is without reciprocity, and it does look like our love thus demonstrated should have begat the love of these people during 16 years of faithful servitude. If the business men can face these facts without feeling a sense of shame it must be because their consciences are seared. What do our brethren of the press of the state think of the situation? A hint from them will be appreciated.

There were 158 deaths from heat prostration in New York City Tuesday, and 66 in Brooklyn.

A. HOWARD STAMPER, Esq., democratic candidate for state senator from this district, called at THE HERALD office Sunday en route to West Liberty, and in a talk with the editor said he had no doubt of his election in the fall. He says that had certain facts developed at or before the convention there would have been no controversy about the nomination; and, asked what facts he referred to, he said that the county of Owsley had never instructed for Mr. Hampton for state senator, the fact of its one vote being cast for him to the contrary notwithstanding. And, he said, that if it were proven henceforth that Owsley did instruct for Mr. Hampton he would step down and out. His own language, was this: "If it is proven that Mr. Hampton received the instructions of Owsley county, I will quit the race, and I am willing to rest my nomination and election upon that." He says that all the democrats who withdrew from the convention will eventually come in and vote for him and that his election is beyond question. He thinks also, that not only will he be elected but that he will increase the majority. Wolfe he estimates at 408, or the same given Bryan in his first race, and thinks he can safely bank on Morgan for 750. He says he is in to win and win he will.

INADVERTENTLY we last week failed to note the appearance of the Walnut Grove Herald, a 7-col. folio paper, patent outside, just launched at Caney, with Jahiza Haney as editor. The price is $1.00 a year, and if the people of that section of Morgan give it a proper support it is calculated to do much good for that section. It is really a revival of the Caney Courier, which started and stopped two or three times within the last year or so, and is now revived to fill a supposed vacuum caused by the building of the Ohio and Kentucky railroad, it being at the terminus of said road. Mr. Haney is a new man in the newspaper field and his experience for the coming year is calculated to be of much benefit to him in after life. The paper starts under very favorable auspices, showing as it does the advertising of all the business men of the place, and it should prove a success.

RETURNING a compliment we recently paid R. J. White as a prospective publisher of the paper at Frenchburg, Dick seems determined that we should not "out-clever" him, for he says: "The above was penned by an old printer friend, than whom there is no abler disciple of the 'art preservative.' He has lived long enough to put the craps on the coffins that contained the remains of several 'long felt wants' as they were carted to their long home in the field of Eastern Kentucky journalism. The Hazel Green HERALD, at whose helm he has stood for many years, mid the raging storms of variegated hue, and basked in the sunlight of fortune's fickle smile, is still riding the waves of time with 'Spence' constant to duty. May his days of fair weather and good fortune be many, and when 30 comes in may his form be pressed gently by the hands of mother earth filled with a generous bunch of 'forget-me-nots.'"

THE NEWS is the name of the new paper started at Frenchburg, the first edition of which appeared last week, with R. J. White as editor and publisher. It is a 4-column folio, and, while it is quite small it is amply large for the place, and fully worth the price—fifty cents a year. The initial number shows a lot of home advertising, which, if retained at reasonable rates, insures the success of Mr. White's venture, and we hope he may succeed beyond his most sanguine hope.

The Lexington Herald Sunday devoted three columns to the story of Spencer Cooper's life. The Hazel Green editor has a most honorable record as a Federal soldier. He has, like many other veterans, felt some delicacy about applying for a pension, but now finds that he should have applied long ago. A pension for services in the Federal army is a badge of honor and we hope the esteemed editor of THE HERALD will get his badge in large measure at an early day.—Beattyville News.

What to do with one's summer vacation is a perennial question. Most people have neither the money nor the wish to go to an expensive, overcrowded seaside or mountain resort, and yet every man needs a few days devoted to pleasure and a complete rest at least once a year. The Cosmopolitan for July gives a solution of the problem in a well-written, illustrated article, "A Houseboat—The Modern Palace." Undoubtedly a houseboat offers a cheap and comfortable vacation, and the ranks of its devotees are constantly swelling.

Little John Faulkner was shot in the arm by a man named Powers, at Neola on Sunday evening. The ball entered his right arm near the elbow, and ranged around the bone where Dr. Carroll cut it out. From best information obtainable at this time, the shooting was an accident, and consequently there was no arrest.
